Pluto

It may be small but it can still be fun!

Pluto and Charon by isaac Asimov

By, Ben Tucker

References

http://sos.noaa.gov/datasets/solar_system/pluto.html http://planet-facts.com/wp-content/uploads/2010/05/Pluto_Core_Surface-800.jpg http://www.moonglow.net/ccd/pictures/pc/index.html http://solarsystem.nasa.gov/multimedia/gallery/Pluto_Sym.jpg http://www.sciencebuzz.org/sites/default/files/images/pluto.jpg http://www.enchantedlearning.com/subjects/astronomy/planets/pluto/http://solarsystem.nasa.gov/planets/profile.cfm?Object=Pluto&Display=Facts

Pluto and Charon by isaac Asimov

By, Ben Tucker
Activities to do on Pluto

- Sky jumping
  sky jumping is kind of like bungie jumping on Earth!!!
- Day trip to Charon
  For one day you will take a trip to Pluto’s amazing moon Charon!!!
- Ice skating on one of Pluto’s craters
  Skate on one of Pluto’s famous craters!!!
- Cross country skiing

Where to Eat

- Cool Diner
- Snowy restaurant
- Crater diner

Where to Stay

- Ice Hotel
- Nix Inn
- Hades Inn

What to bring

- Jacket made of sheep’s wool
- A portable heater
- Any luxury items

How to get to Pluto

- Hop on to the Pluto Express
- The Hydra Jet
- The Cold Plane

Information about the Dwarf Planet Pluto

- Pluto has 3 moons Charon, Nix, and Hydra.
- Every day on Pluto is 6.3 Earth days.
- Average temperature is -375°F.
- Distance from the sun is 5,906,380,000km.
- The diameter of Pluto is 2,300km.
- Pluto’s atmosphere is made up of nitrogen, carbon monoxide, and Methane.
- A year on Pluto is 90,553 earth days.
- Pluto is made of rock and not gas.
- Pluto is smaller than Earth so you might be able to go around the whole planet.
- The coldest temperature is -387°F
- The warmest temperature is -369°F
- Pluto’s orbit is tilted at a 17.15° angle
- Pluto was discovered by Claude Tombaugh in 1930

Cost of your Trip

$1,000,000,000